CONTENTS

Preface: The History of the Promise, Land, and Hope Project .... ix
Philip A. Cunningham, Ruth Langer, and Jesper Svartvik, editors

Acknowledgments .................................................. xvii

PART ONE: TOPICAL ESSAYS

Scriptural Overviews

1. The Land in the Hebrew Bible
   Tamara Cohn Eskenazi and J. Cornelis de Vos ...................... 3

2. New Testament Perspectives on the Land
   Michael F. Trainor and J. Cornelis de Vos ........................ 21

The Meaning of the Land

3. Israel in Jewish Theologies: A Schematic Overview
   Ruth Langer .................................................................. 43

4. Theology of the Land: A Christian Palestinian Perspective
   Jamal Khader ................................................................ 63

5. Muslim Ties to the Land: Knotted Controversies and Potential Paths toward Cooperation
   Mehnaz M. Afridi .......................................................... 86

Challenges

6. The Roles of Theology and History in Claims to Palestine/Israel
   Ilan Troen .................................................................. 107
Contents

   Peter A. Pettit .................................................. 129

8. The Children of Sarah and Hagar, and the "Mother City" of Jerusalem: Three Readings of Paul's Midrash in Galatians
   Jesper Svartvik .................................................. 160

   Raymond Cohen .................................................. 191

Personal Reflections

10. A Life in a Wounded Land
    David Neuhaus ................................................ 213

11. Reflections on a Dialectical Religious Experience on Israel Independence Day
    Deborah Weissman ............................................. 229

Creative Approaches in Christian Theology

12. Challenges and Guidelines for a Christian Theology of the Land
    Jesper Svartvik ................................................ 241

    John T. Pawlikowski ........................................... 262

14. Engrafted and Rooted Ways of Belonging: Alternatives to Abrogation in Post-Shoah and Palestinian Theologies
    Barbara U. Meyer ............................................. 282

15. Toward a Catholic Theology of the Centrality of the Land of Israel for Jewish Covenantal Life
    Philip A. Cunningham ....................................... 303

    Michael F. Trainor .......................................... 335
Contents

PART TWO: A CURRICULUM FOR DIALOGUE ABOUT ISRAEL-PALESTINE

17. PARTNERS IN HOPE: Constructive Interreligious Dialogue through Text Study
   Adam Gregerman, Philip A. Cunningham, and Peter A. Pettit.....357

Appendix 1: Understanding the Meaning Map ...................... 369

Appendix 2: Modern Texts for Participant Study and Discussion. . 375

Appendix 3: Additional Modern Texts for Further Sessions ........ 397

Appendix 4: Self-Reflection on the Series. .......................... 417

About the Contributors .................................................. 419